Collection name: Alpena Civic Orchestra & Alpena Choral Society

Collection number: ACO-ACS1

Quantity: 1 box.

Provenance note: From scrapbooks made by William (Bill) & Sue Maxwell, as collected during Bill’s time directing and/or performing with the orchestra. Donated by the Maxwells in 2011 & 2012.

Biographical & Historical Information: William E. Maxwell, 79, of Ossineke, passed away on Wednesday, Dec. 7, 2011. Bill was born on Feb. 8, 1932, in Flint to Leon D. and Eunice Lukes Maxwell. He grew up in Saginaw, and received his bachelor’s and master’s degrees at the University of Michigan. Bill taught social studies, psychology, and sociology at Alpena High School from 1963 until his retirement in 1989. Bill was an active member of Alpena Civic Theatre for more than 45 years, including a long stint as treasurer. Bill played oboe in the Alpena Civic Orchestra for many years. When the orchestra lost its conductor, the members appointed him to find a new one. Unsuccessful in his quest, he took over conducting himself, a post he held for several years. [Taken from obituary in The Alpena News]

In 1955, Gordon Johnson (Alpena High School and Alpena Community College music instructor) organized the Alpena Choral Society. Four music teachers, during their tenure at A.H.S. and A.C.C., continued the group. Directors, in chronological order, were Bill (Willard) Fast, John Dovaras, Larry Torkelson, and Robert Hein, Pat Bunce and Carol Witherbee also directed for brief periods.
