Biographical & Historical Information: Robert was the Besser Museum's curator for several years, and authored several books of the history of Alpena, as well as being listed in Who's Who in American Archaeology and Dictionary of International Biography, 1979. Robert died on February 14, 2012. Robert, with his father Gerald, were Native American researchers and amateur archaeologists who did extensive work in this region. The artifacts found and collected were first housed in the Haltiner's Hall of Ancient Man before being donated to the Jesse Besser Museum (Besser Museum for Northeast Michigan). Gerald was Past President and Vice-President of the Michigan Archaeological Society and listed in Who's Who in Indian Relics.

Scope & Content: This section of the Haltiner Collection relates to the biographical research of various Alpena figures and family members.

Acquisition: Papers created by Robert Haltiner (some portions of the overall collection also contain papers created by his father, Gerald Haltiner) from researching & writing local history books; papers from involvement in work, societies, associations, committees, and other activities. Donated by Robert Haltiner in 2006+.

Access: Open to research.
